BOMBAY ACT No. IV OF 1862.[1]

[24th April, 1862.]

An Act for regulating the establishment of markets and fairs.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the establishment of new markets or fairs in the neighbourhood of places where markets or fairs have been previously established leads to disputes between the owners of the lands on which such new and previously established markets or fairs are held, and such disputes not unfrequently occasion breaches of peace and serious inconvenience to the frequenters of such markets or fairs; It is enacted as follows:—

No new market or fair to be established without permission.

1. [2] * * * * * No person shall establish a new market or fair without permission, in writing, from the Magistrate of the district.

[1] No Statement of Objects and Reasons was published. For the Bill as introduced, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1862, Supplement, p. 49; for Report of the Select Committee, see ibid, p. 77 and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, pp. 49, 76 and 95.

[2] The words "After the passing of this Act" were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1873 (12 of 1873).

Penalty for attempt to establish without license.

If any person shall attempt to establish a new market or fair without such license, he shall, on conviction by [1][a Magistrate of the first class,] be subject to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or, in default of payment, to simple imprisonment for any period not exceeding two [2] * months.

Person desiring to establish to apply to Magistrate. Contents of application.

2. When any person desires to establish a new market or fair, he shall make application, in writing, to the Magistrate of the district.

The application shall specify—the name of the place at which it is proposed to establish such new market or fair;

the days on which it is to be held;

the name of the place where the nearest existing market or fair is held, and the days on which it is held;

the distance, in English miles, between the two places, and the reasons of the applicant for desiring to establish the new market or fair.

Procedure on application.

3. On receipt of the application, the Magistrate shall issue a proclamation stating the desire of the applicant to establish a market or fair at the place named by him and the days on which it is proposed to be held, and calling upon any person who may have any objection to the establishment of the market or fair to state his objection, in writing, within six weeks from the date of the proclamation.

Publication of proclamation.

The proclamation shall be fixed in a conspicuous place in the village or town in or near to which it is proposed that the new market or fair shall be held, and a copy of the same shall be affixed at the police-station within the jurisdiction of which the village or town is situated, and in the Court of the Magistrate.

Notice to land-owner of neighbouring market.

If it shall appear that any existing market or fair is held within a distance of four miles from the place where it is proposed that the new market or fair shall be established, the Magistrate shall cause a notice, to the effect of the proclamation, to be served upon the owner of the land where such existing market or fair is held.

The proclamation and notice (if any) shall be issued and served at the expense of the applicant.

Order permitting establishment.

4. If, within the time specified in the proclamation and notice (if any), no objection is preferred to the establishment of the proposed market or fair, the Magistrate of the district shall pass an order permitting it to be established.

[1] These words in s. 1 were substituted for the words "the Magistrate" by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. Act 3 of 1886), Schedule B. This Schedule is printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. Act 1 of 1904), Vol. IV of this Code.

[2] The word "calendar" was repealed by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. Act 3 of 1886).

Enquiry into objection.

If within the time specified any objection is preferred, the Magistrate of the District shall inquire into the objection, and pass such order as may appear proper under the circumstances of the case.

5. [Markets and fairs established prior to passing of Act.] Rep. Act XII of 1876.

Appeal.

6. Every order passed by a [1][District Magistrate] under [1][section 4] shall, within six weeks, be open to appeal to the Commissioner [1]* * * and the order of the Commissioner shall be final.

Penalty for contravening, disobeying or opposing order.

7. Every person who shall contravene, disobey or oppose any order duly made under this Act shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or, in default of payment, to imprisonment [2]* * * * * for any period not exceeding two [2]* months.

Extent.

8. This Act shall not extend to the Islands of Bombay and Kolába.

Exemption of religious assemblages.

9. Nothing in this Act shall be held to apply to assemblages of people collected at, or concerned in, the inauguration of sacred edifices, or collected at, or concerned in, any other religious festivals or ceremonies not forming a part of a fair or market.

Saving of general powers of Government.||

10. Nothing in this Act shall be held to restrict the general powers of Government to control the orders of the [1][District Magistrate] or Commissioner [1]* * in regard to markets or fairs.

11. [Meaning of "Magistrate."] Rep. Bom. Act III of 1886.

BOMBAY ACT No. V OF 1862 [3].

[24th April, 1862.]

An Act for the preservation of the Bhágdárí and Narwádárí Tenures.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been found that the permanence of the tenures known as the bhágdárí and narwádárí tenures, which have existed from time immemorial in certain parts of the Presidency of Bombay, is endangered by the increasing
